A great family home in sought after location.

This home is located in an elevated and quiet position in the sought after newer area of western coffs harbour.

This home was built approx. only 10 years ago, and is in a good condition with 4 spacious bedrooms and good sized open plan kitchen, living and dining areas.

A great floor plan providing multiple furnishing options.

The backyard has been retained to provide an easy maintained and managed back yard and has the bonus of side access for small boat or caravan.

The estate is a family friendly and quiet estate to come home to, the estate has several reserve / park areas for children's playing or relaxing family walks.

This Home would be a great purchase for any family or investor looking for a great central position and very low maintenance home.

don't delay as homes similar to this and in this sought-after estate, usually sell fast.
