At the other end of the home there are 2 more bedrooms and large main bathroom with separate bath and shower.

The home was constructed with the energy efficiency in front of mind, constructed of Eco Friendly material that keeps the home at an average of 19 degrees all year round. You can be totally off the grid as the whole property can run on the solar system and the batteries can be quickly recharged by the on-site generator or if needed at the flick of a switch your back on the grid.

There is a huge leveled area that would make a great spot for a dressage arena or build a massive shed and create your own undercover or enclosed equestrian arena, this area is very close to the current stables.

All the 7 paddocks have water to them, feed via a header tank up on the hill that is kept topped up by the property bore that has a 60 litre a minute pumping capacity and the water quality is better than spring water.

The sheds service all your needs, one shed for all your gardening tools and mower and is positioned on top of the 90,000 litre inground water tank. The main shed has 3 bays with 2 roller doors which one door is high enough to get your caravan or centre console fishing boat inside.

If it's a perfect rural lifestyle you are searching for, come and inspect 520 Crossmaglen Rd Bonville and explore the beauty of this property.
